PHILADELPHIA, March 8.-Isaiah V. Williamson, the venerable millionaire and hilanthropist, died yesterday.

Isalah V. Williamson, who gave one-sixth of his fortune of $15,000,000 to establish the an institution which, like Girard college, an institution which, like Girard college, will always remain an enduring monument to his princely liberality and the A. It is said of him that the guiding principle in his moneymaking ventures was not to do a thing to-day that could just as well be done to-morrow. To this he attributed his success in the commercial world. He used to be fond of rational amusements, and for twenty years spent every summer He used to be fond of rational amusements, and for twenty years spent every summer at Saratoga. Though an old man, he was passionately fond of dancing, and was always on the fioor at the fashionable balls and hops at that famous watering place. He was never at a loss for a partner, for he was known to everybody at Saratoga as "the rich bachelor from Philadelphia." Many were the adroit little see mes concocted by ambitious mammas with marriageable darlings to rescue the old gentleman from bachelorhood, but they all falled, as the object of their attentions slipped through their hands. In the sunset of his life, the aged philanthropist delighted to gossip with his ever narrowing circle of acquaintances—for he made but few new friends—about the gay times he used to have at Saratoga. Long ago, a quarter of a century, perhaps, he drove a good team, but he dispensed with his carriage and horses because he grew tired of them.

A gentleman who has known him for forty years said of this peculiarity: "It was easier for Mr. Williamson to give away $10,000 than to purchase a suit of clothes for himself." He carried the same umbrella for fifteen years or more, and stuck to it because he said he liked it. He moved about frequently, and generally staid at the house of a friend. He had no furniture to speak of, and moved about at his pleasure. He did not care to have many people know where he lived, and the city directory only gave the location of his office on Bank street. He was not a mean man, and the crowning act of his life—the establishment of the proposed school—was undertaken with the view of re-establishing the old apprenticeship system, which flourished so extensively in his youth and young manhood.

In personal appearance Mr. Williamson was rather a small man, weighing about 130 pounds. He had a very pleasant face, and some people said his features were somewhat of a feminine cast. He had a bright eye and his whole countenance was suggestive of firmness and decisive characteristics.

Boston, March 7.—Sidney Bartlett, L.L. D., died last night, aged 90. He was of the council before the Hayes-Tilden electoral commission, and in many other prominent cases. He leaves a large estate, including $1,000,000 in stock of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy road.

Killed by an Unknown. NEW YORK, March 8 .- Gunther Wechrung, 29 years of age, a German drug clerk at 987 Third avenue, was struck on the head with an axe early this morning by an unknown man. Wechrung's skull was evening. His hands were almost cut off in trying to save his head. His assailant has not been arrested. The store was robbed, but the police believe this was done so as to avoid suspicion as to the real motive of the crime. Wechrung said he was struck from behind and lost consciousness with-out seeing his assailant.

LONDON, March 8 .- The British man-ofwar Sultan has been wrecked on the island of Comino, in the Mediterranean. The captain and crew were saved. The Sultar was an iron armored plated vessel of 290 tons. She was temporarily attached to the Mediterranean squadron.

The British ship Vandalia, from Perth-Amboy, Feb. 5, for London, with petroleum has been sunk off Bagnor by a collision with an unknown steamer. One of the crew was killed by the falling of the anchor and one was drowned. The remainder were saved.

Says He Killed Clayton. MORRILON, Ark., March 8 .- An inc erent letter signed "Jack the Ripper" was beived to-day by Sheriff Shelby and received to-day by Sheriff Shelby and turned over to the grand jury. The writer says he killed John M. Clayton, the murdered republican candidate for congress, because years ago Clayton caused the lives of the writer's father and other persons to be taken. Judge Cunningham's charge to the grand jury investigating the Clayton case was a severe arraignment of the crime and an earnest plea that nothing be left undone to unearth the perpetrator.

Herr Stuebel's Mission. LONDON, March 8.—A Berlin dispatch says Herr Stuebel goes as special commis-sioner to restore order in Samoa, and he will have control of the German squadron in Samoan waters. He is reputed to be an able diplomat. The American accounts of the terms of the armistice arranged by Herr Knappe and Mataafa are not believed in Berlin.

The Standard's Berlin correspondent says it is stated Mr. Kasson will represent America in the Samoa conference.

ZANZIBAR, March 8 .- An Arab dhow arrived here reports she was boarded by an officer of a German gunboat, who granted her a pass. Afterwards she was fired upon by other German gunboats and her captain killed. This created great excite ment among the people of Zanzibar. Crowds surrounded the sultan's palace clamoring for revenge. The sultan re-ferred them to the German consul.

But while it relieves constipation in common with dyspepsia and liver complaint—associate evils—the griping and abdominal disturbance produced by drastic purgatives never precede its operation. Its thoroughness is unmarred by violence, the chief characteristic of most laxatives, and one that is highly prejudicial to both bowels and stomach. It is only by invigorating the intestinal canal, and thus fitting it to perform its office as a natural sluice for the effete matter of the system, that its regularity can be perpetuated. To weaken by drenching is to insure its relapse into disorder. This the Bitters never does. Chils and fever, nervousness, kidney complaints yield to the Bitters, and appetite and sleep are improved by it.

HOME TESTIMONY

HELENA, Oct. 7, 1887. HELENA, Oct. 7, 1887.

I was suffering from an unusually bad cough, my lungs were sore and congested, and I consulted one of the best physicians in Helena, whose prescriptions failed to relieve me. I became alarmed, and at the suggestion of a friend purchased a bottle of Acker's English Remedy for coughs, and after taking it according to directions was completely cured. I therefore cheerfully recommend it.

JACOB SWITZER.

I had a racking cough and inflamed throat and bought a bottle of Acker's English Remedy upon the recommendation of a friend, and was entirely cured by it. I consider it a never failing remedy for a cough.

Acker's anglish preparations are for sale in Helena cough by P. Male A. C. for sale

Itching piles are known by moisture like The Dining Car Route perspiration, producing a very disagree-able itching after getting warm. This form, as well as blind, bleeding and pro-truding piles, yield at once to the applica-tion of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, ab-sorbing the tumors, allaying the intense itching and effecting a permanent cure. Fifty cents. Address The Dr. Bosanko Medicine company, Piqua, O. Sold by R. S. Hale & Co.

Cure for Sick Headache If you want a remedy for biliousness, pimples in the face, and a sure cure for sick headache, ask R. S. Hale & Co., the druggists, tor a free sample of Dr. Gunn's Liver Pilis. Only one for a dose; full box 25 cents.

The Ladies Delighted. The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasing to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effectual in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

Gentlemen frequently complain of their barber shaving them too close, and the face and neck breaking out into small pimples. If Dutard's specifie is applied to the face immediately after shaving, no matter how close the shave, all soreness will be prevented. Sold by R. S. Hale & Co., wholesale and retail agents, Heiena.

A pain in the back often leads to complicated diseases that are almost incurable. Oregon Kidney Tea cures the first and prevents the latter. It is purely vegetable, and is warranted and sold by R. S. Hale & Co. wholesale and retail agents, Helena.

Can you imagine any ailment that will make a good natured person so peevish, dissatisfied, ill tempered and cranky as biliousness? There is no reason, whatever, why any one should suffer from indigestion, Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver and loss of appetite, when Dr. Henley's Dandellon Tonic, which every one knows is a certain cure, can be so easily obtained. R. S. Hale & Co., wholesale and retail agents, Helena.

Nasal catarrh is probably one of the most disagreeable aliments that a person can be afflicted with. If Dutard's Specific is used with a doucheor even snuffed up the nose, according to directions, morning and evening, a radical cure can in most cases be effected. Sold by R. S. Hale & Co, wholesale and retail agents, Helena.

Persons troubled with rheumatism should try Chamberlain's Pain Baim. One application will cease the pain, and its continued use has cured many cases of chronic and inflamtory rheumatism that had resisted other remedies and even the treatment of the best physicians. Price 50 cents per bottle. For sale by H. M. Parchen & Co.

The following from the pen of Mr. M. P. Birdwell, editor of the Marion (lows) Pilot, will, we believe, be of interest to many of our readers. He says: It is with pleasure that I certify to the real merits of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I have used it in my family for years and have all ways tound it most excellent, and especially for colds, croup and sore throat. It is safe and effective. For sale by H. M. Parchen.

"I have used St. Patrick's Pills," says Mr. J. Reynoids, of Mayfield, Ky., "and pronounce them superior to any I have ever before used. I do not hesitate to recommend them, knowing them to be reliable." They are thorough, yet gentle in their action and leave the system in splendid condition. As a catharthic, or for disorders of the liver, St. Patrick's Pills have no equal. For sale by H. M. Parchen.

CONSUMPTION, which is Scrofula of the Lungs, is arrested and cured by this remedy, if taken in the earlier stages of the disease. From its marvelous power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now world-famed remedy to the public, Dr. Pierce thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Ourg." but abandoned that name as too restrictive for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for Consumption, but for all Chronic Biseases of the Liver, Blood, and Lungs. For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, ness of Breath, Chronic Nasal Catarrh, chitis, Asthma, Severe Coughs, and I affections, it is an efficient remedy.
